A driver must submit this Driver Information and Record before being considered for eligibility for a NASCAR-sanctioned event. After review of the Driver Information and Record, NASCAR will advise a driver if he/she is approved for competition and/or observation and, if approved, may include limitations or conditions for a particular series and/or racetrack. Approval, if granted, is contingent upon the driver having a valid and current NASCAR membership and Competitor License as a race driver, as described in the NASCAR Rule Book, including passing any tests and completing any authorizations, releases, and other documents as requested by NASCAR. Any approval is subject to change and may be superseded at any time by the NASCAR officials at the event, or by NASCAR supervisory officials. NASCAR, in its sole discretion, may review the qualifications or performance of a driver at any time and modify or revoke prior approval. Furthermore, should a driver not compete in a NASCAR-sanctioned event in his or her currently approved series for over 365 days, such driver will be considered inactive. Such driver must then resubmit this NASCAR Driver Information and Record prior to his or her next requested event for series and racetrack approval.

THIS DRIVER INFORMATION AND RECORD MUST BE SUBMITTED TO NASCAR AT LEAST TWO WEEKS PRIOR TO THE FIRST REQUESTED EVENT.
